✓ Long lasting and does not deaden

ZEDLAND's patented high molecular density foam provides continued resilience, which induces natural muscle flexing and thus reduces standing fatigue. This high quality foam has wear properties that excel other products. The "bounce" properties are equally long lasting providing a standing surface that will not deaden. Zed Land is available in a range of mat sizes and roll lengths to suit all areas.

- Excellent fatigue reduction
- Patented foam construction
- ASTM D4060 - minimal wear
